SACRIFICE

Pains and losses from birth she nurse me
Working to raise, sacrifices and she make
During day making hay sunshine for a pay
Night she pray for blessings to make way

Voice unheard clothing prepared robe on Daunting tasks market path she moves on
Before break of dawn meal made nutritious
Feeding and growing life, child never to cry

Seed turning to tree for atlas fruits ripen
Years of wipen make sure life's dust free
Sacrifice unsung and the harvest become
Reaping till more, price soar like diamond

A mother's love born from utmost sacrifice
A life for a life surviving and she's priceless

STRANGE

Can never tell journey to where heart lead
Searching for love like needle in haystack
Spin return for pleasure a soul to be filled
Mountains, downhill, lake found in desert

Attribute heal tributaries magic like trick
Hard rock water springs beauty to nature
What a feel the heart yearn, lion in a den
Roar wanting pet keeping search time go

In strangest flowers grow a love so bold
Witnessed by air classic and stories told
Kisses to engrave lasting living days old
Honey so sweet a soul to hold time cold

Keep going walking into ancient of days
Strangest place happiness can be found

BROKEN

Views, experience marred on broken mirror
Looking deep in variance move back to zero
Shredded and split of blood thongs on head
Scattered thought smashed emotions of led

Moving round circle camp fire burn passion
Elated turns fear new life come in retraction
Retracing to mend solutions sailing faraway
Revive pieces found make whole time again

Imperfect to find, glue for once broken heart
Deepens in flow, stream of feelings to catch
Love to heal, crying eyes revealing sunshine
Making bright years images bringing smiles

Coming from hinter- broken soul rejuvenate
Watered once more budding flower it grows

LOVE AGAIN

Burning bridge across ridge reaching heart
Lock out key thrown into sea, I keep search
Puzzled, run into maze labyrinth of emotion
Time past filled of commotion and distrust

New projectile streamlined and spur again
Holding hand feel of love erase bitter taste
Years of cold needing your cuddles like fur
Giving warmth bringing to life beautiful kid

From hard rock, new love is springing forth
Rising tide wanting to swim deep till drown
In your arm finding way to depth of passion
Build all that's lost, world in your eyes I see

Returning to first point a love at first sight
Gone round and back to same point of rest

SEARCHING

Troubled mind whisper, its searching again
Digging in grave thoughts, to bury the pain
Shadow and wind pass, they all making hay
Travel seaside sitting and watching the bay

Hanging on cliff searching to follow the sun
All lights are seen dark I can't find any spark
On mountains, valley bound to rise up again
Fly across oceans crashing to fall in an arm

Depth of heart bringing love and life again
Been searching, to find a final resting place
Risk flight I'm taking far from home staking
Heartbeat pacing feeling running goes over

Hover on cloud, years of clout end in a day
Distant search and still do not find a space

SOMBREIRO

Washing away years of chemical pollute
Film coated, how do I get clean of pains
Aquatic lives breathless, surface it float
Winding of time blue shining reflections

Like the cloud, give life to under the sea
Pebbles precious stones well dress bed
Source of bond to long year all in peace
Like before man and creation of nature

Wiping tears of inhabitant by the creek
Made for more and destiny must fulfill
Embracing one voice unity they all sing
Millennium to come in light years I flow

Wave and tide kissing bottom of trawler
Many come and go I Sombreiro remain

DESIRE

Oxygen fire up into flames and run track
Piling to inner depth of heart, love stack
Strike aquifer gushing out no going back
Heavy duty, a machining strong like Mac

Turn off the lights a burning desire burst
Thrusting, slide, two become one in trust
Sensual cold heat to form cloud like dust
Road to sweet love a journey and a must

Eyes burning red twist and roll up to sky
Robes free soothes, skin smooth like silk
Digging in deep finding to form a new life
Pacing and exercise panting moving slick

Burning each moment we spend together
Desire growing, in you I find my true love

GOOD

Obsessed with all things good holding you
Through the night smiles to brighten dawn
Stare at mirror images of you running past
Memories it all last, fly to moon secret fast

All things good want last drop of your love
To fill my cup unending, sing sweet songs
Echoes hitting the wall breaking sweat hot
Drip it drop worth more than sum it come

Give all things good from deep inside you
Receive in return beautiful flower like sun
Energy and more emotion rise fall for you
To see blend when our faces become one

Love so good fairy sweetest amongst all
In dream needing some more kisses et al

LET IT BE

First day made virgin pure a perfect cure
Winds of passion, mountain tall giving all
A bare life screened to core profess love
Let it be like magnetic flux, always want

Glue to skin heart display warm embrace
Spirit ecstasied union to remain undefiled
Honey pot from whence royalty spring on
New Year's come, heart as one keep push

Climbing on, scale restrictions and all fail
Let it be, see through bond eye hold reins
Experiences block redirect showing ways
Destiny and tour going strong to big days

You are my world, trouble gone its all fun
For better no worse, in cold giving warm

AWAKEN

A closed door, knock to enter one more time
Body instrument chime, make move sublime
Grease and it slide, friction to create energy
Buildings and we go high for one final elegy

Open eyes to new realm, sitting atop cloud
Nine lives making love so deep and shroud
Most beautiful, a heart so happy I'm proud
Long search till last hope, and you I found

Awaken all senses five fly towards the sun
Fall into nest, nurtured by passion abreast
Together standing strong for all battle won
Best years, and never to settle for any less

Realizing for we are made to compliment
Spirit and soul awaken, drift to you alone

FOREVER

Moving through the darkest night searching
To heal wound, blood thirst ravens perching
Birthing a new chrome, heart of elastic wide
On destination to realizing, prime and pride

Hurdles to jump and record lock safe in key
Temptation to appear wanting heart to flee
For let it be true, a bond forever what I plea
Emotions gush, going across ocean n sea

Forever are these words I say to my Queen
A precious diamond stronger than all seen
Offering on platter a scanned love of mine
Survive millennium to earthen and rest time

Closed eyes a beautiful world is revealed
Forever bound and memories ceaseless

TEMPEST

Walking in the city lights layered up high
Rainbows appear calling for new soul in
Faces plain no deceit, head like Medusa
Looking for a shoulder to rest on eternal

Magnetic wave and count each heart tick
A voice in silence screams for one to feel
Midst of Delilah fall to ground energy lost
Pounding in time seeking a place to burst

Cold feet leaping from earth, burning soul
Tempest appear, redirecting back to whole
Bygones laid to rust new ore bond we form
In love soul transmutate reaching unending

Past is done future unborn brings renewed
Hope and a god whom to love without fault

CONUNDRUM

Paths and phases on a way it rephrased
Huge steps taken arrow pointing space
Energy is constipated and to construed
What isn't said but heard all over place

Walking, splits earth for mind to reveal
Innermost undone wanting some more
Unconscious and truth finds a way out
Of cunning and wicked not to last long

Life riddle and abyss, happiness is key
To unlock years of peace, all thing fair
A circuit and lair far from dragons den
Taming of the wild, a lion in a play pen

Should end be near? Distance covered
Washing away fear? In peace like lamb

GROUND MASTER

Thin line between life and the great beyond
Digging down six for breathless of no return
Balance continues and can never to be filled
For tomorrow another brought to be buried

What the eyes have seen, a life for the dead
Names brought in lot of blank spaces open
Realm none can feel, communication close
Alive and they'll leave to silence of the yard

Spade and the rope, sun shining for healing
Mental to be clean mysteries of the ground
Mouth dug wide open for bodies to receive
Life comes to end spirit and soul obliterated

Destiny and to fulfill dash in sands of time
Master for now, on journey to know more

FLOWER

Budding seeds spring forth beauty of time
Petal with colors radiating toward the sun
Hope come alive large garden to be filled
Emotions and it drive senses life revealed

Heat and the cold planted flower still bold
Direction it show leading to pretty of ways
Specially created, unique ones in a million
On day to be plucked sacrifice to be made

Sown in love grown for nature to replenish
Others vanish, this one flower everlasting
Words it whispers so soothing to the soul
Bonding of many years till we growing old

Flower framed, deepest of my love for you
I will be tamed, waiting to harvest of more

CHRONICLE OF PASSION

Dark night sounds of crickets, birds chirp
Sitting alone on balcony with a list of wish
Top of it, a goddess to cuddle till next day
Burning passion inside molten like magma

To stare in her eye seeing what future hold
Reading all my desire on lucky crystal ball
Quenching a fire lit up high by single touch
Temperature become hot and rising to fall

In sequence of time pierce bleeding heart
Lay forever in your arm till end of humans
Till ocean run dry and desert lacking sun
Moon no longer come, it depart to mars

In your heart there I wish to remain forever
Tales to be written, a chronicle of together

PEACE & LOVE

Taste of life I'll never get enough of it
Paste alright, feelings getting no copy
La crème on my mind lick like lollipop
Gushing, flow downhill rock to bottom

Turbul- Sea rumbles till raise and calm
Reaching end distance and was covered
Energy dissipated atmospheric elevated
Worries annihilated cloud meet on earth

In peace and love flourish life born green
Morning dew turn on to warm and steam
Chase away the cold, skin on skin to fur
Covering flaws n move on in same force

In peace & love hormones striking forth
Showers till it drops climbing to the top

CANDLE IN THE RAIN

Going along this path to one more turn
Distance track and music playing burn
Rainbow comes out at night giving light
Thundering and strike lightning it spark

Shower end drought I try to find my way
Keep pushing and pace heart run it stay
Pray to God to show reflections of mind
Secrecy it bind potion drank till overflow

Lit up my candle in the rain washing pain
Hot wax fall on hand burning of true love
Go deep into heart, sensations to remain
Regalia made white sensible and no stain

Bare life images display unseen it replay
Candle lit in the rain fire burning nonstop

MOON

Dancing to symphony the melody harmony
Space drift a craft from earth ship to moon
Relation and swoon chocolate and smooth
Through aerial flight land fast on bed night

Moonwalking sensitive to a twitch for more
Lump siding balance to cloud nine and soar
Close knitted, streamline like arrow and fly
Pass atmosphere dense breaking of fence

Dancing on moon savor many years come
Feelings and it pour battle fought we won
In your eyes the sun shine for century on
In the night we moon more light to re life

Sweetest of meaning to experience in you
Reflecting healing, love born on the moon

GLORY

By my side giving strength to row along
River of life challenges face headstrong
In rough to calm tides, on high sea wide
Blue of sky colors of smile spreading far

His and her to glory and fit for the crown
History and stories in library to be retold
Victory retaining jewelry in heart of chest
Smart passing set test, heat and the cold

For it's glory two become one spurring on Relinquish con, go on living life in default
As we are made, purple hearts turning red
Whisper and call together lead nations all

Holding hand strongest form solut'n come
Puzzle we solve, to moment of glory days
